MONETIZING YOUR BLOGS

The whole point of tracking down “Hot Trends” and creating blogs related to them is to earn some fast profits. This means you need a way to monetize your efforts properly. Most people will throw Google AdSense ad blocks on their blog and leave it at that. Don’t do this. There are plenty of additional options you can take advantage of.

- ☐ Optimize your Google AdSense ads for color and placement
- ☐ Add Amazon products to your blog that relate to your topic
- ☐ Search large affiliate networks for relevant products (e.g. CJ, Clickbank etc)
- ☐ Join up for CPA networks and search for available products
- ☐ Think outside the square
  - ☐ Consider joining up for AllPosters.com affiliate program
  - ☐ Think about what posters and pictures you can promote to match your keywords if you can’t find other products to promote

Remember, if you create multiple monetization options on your blog posts you have a far greater chance of generating profits quickly.

GETTING TRAFFIC TO YOUR BLOGS

All your hard work will mean absolutely nothing if you don’t find ways to get traffic to your blogs. Spend some time setting up your traffic
