CASE STUDIES

First let me share some Case Studies. So you can know the actual value of this amazing free traffic source. This will also help you get an Idea and give you different strategies which you can use in your Business.

Let's Start It.

How Vylo Generated 6,000 LEADS FROM REDDIT?

Reddit is a great place for Startups. It is a very cost effective place to get leads if you are planning to start working a new Idea. You can also check out for the potential of your idea by discussing it on reddit subreddits. Vylo.org is a great example of a startup that shared their idea on reddit and they managed to get some mind blowing responses from reddit along with 6000 leads too.

Vylo.com is web based chat system for gamers where game lovers can chat each other about the different games. This site has two types of membership accounts. One is free and other is premium. Premium has more features as compared to free.

Before starting up, Vylo submitted their Idea on Reddit for some reviews from the normal user. They wanted to check the potential of their Idea and Reddit turned out to be the right place to look for the right audience for an honest review. Here is a snapshot of the post from Vylo team that submitted it on Reddit

The Business Model

Obviously, this thing will need to sustain itself with some kind of revenue stream. Currently, we think the best way to do that is a freemium business model, similar to Twitch.tv or League of Legends itself.

- You'll be able to use 90% of the service for free
- You'll have the option to upgrade for $7/mo or whatever
- No ads! We think ads hurt the user experience
- We're not sure what the upgrade features will be yet, but they'll probably be along the lines of flair/swag (e.g. custom backgrounds), permanent rooms, and extra big rooms (for bigger MMO clan-type stuff, etc.)

How you can help

Join the mailing list. That's it. To our investors, every person who gets on the list is someone saying, "Yeah this seems cool. Let me know when it's finished."

It also gives us a way to keep you updated.

P.S.

Are there any other features you'd like to see in something like this? Any you could do without? We'll do some more extensive testing during development, but feedback is always awesome.

P.P.S. Final Update

Thank you guys so much. This has been a great response. Makes us feel awesome, and it will certainly go a long way with investors. We'll try to get to all the questions we can.

And thank you, /u/justdweezil (developer of WeConspire) for showing an interest in working together. We just learned about WeConspire today, and while we'll do a lot of things differently, we're pumped to put our heads together. However, lets play a few games together before we get too carried away. :)

1132 comments share save hide give gold report

Their team actually wants to get feedback and test their product so they have decided to test it with Reddit. They decided to test it initially with small audience just because that how user experience with this kind of products and to know about more bugs which may occur. Also large audience may cause failure of the product rather than improvement. So they make a plan to work on it.

There is always a huge target audience for gaming online and Reddit has some special subreddits for this type too. So they got a great response and awesome feedback From Reddit Post about their startup idea. Their Reddit post got more than 1100+ comments and they also managed to capture 6000+ email Leads from that Post.

When Vylo was asked about how why they thought to select Reddit to work out for their startup, They stated that they choose reddit because their team thought that if our post able to get some up-votes then we easily judge the potential of our product that should we scale-up this project or not. To be honest we didn't meant as promotion of product on reddit (as reddit hate self-promotional content) which we easily can do by paid advertisement.

What Vylo Team did was they posted around 12 Reddit posts on different startup, technology, gaming etc subreddits. They also spent some budget on a single Reddit Ad and this also turned out to be one of the top sources for their Leads from Reddit

Their key to get these leads is just because of posting the right sub-reddit, being good with their users and continuously engaging them with the product.

So you can easily understand that how much sub-reddit is important in getting a decent amount of traffic from reddit.

How Ask Me Anything (AMA) GET 15,000 WEBSITE VISITORS Along with 800$ of sales in one day From Reddit?

There are a very people who don't know that Reddit is one of the best social media networks that can help them to promote their business in a short time. Reddit can help to generate website traffic, leads and even sales too. You just have to keep calm while working on Reddit as their spam filters are very tight and they have some strict admin moderation in subreddits.

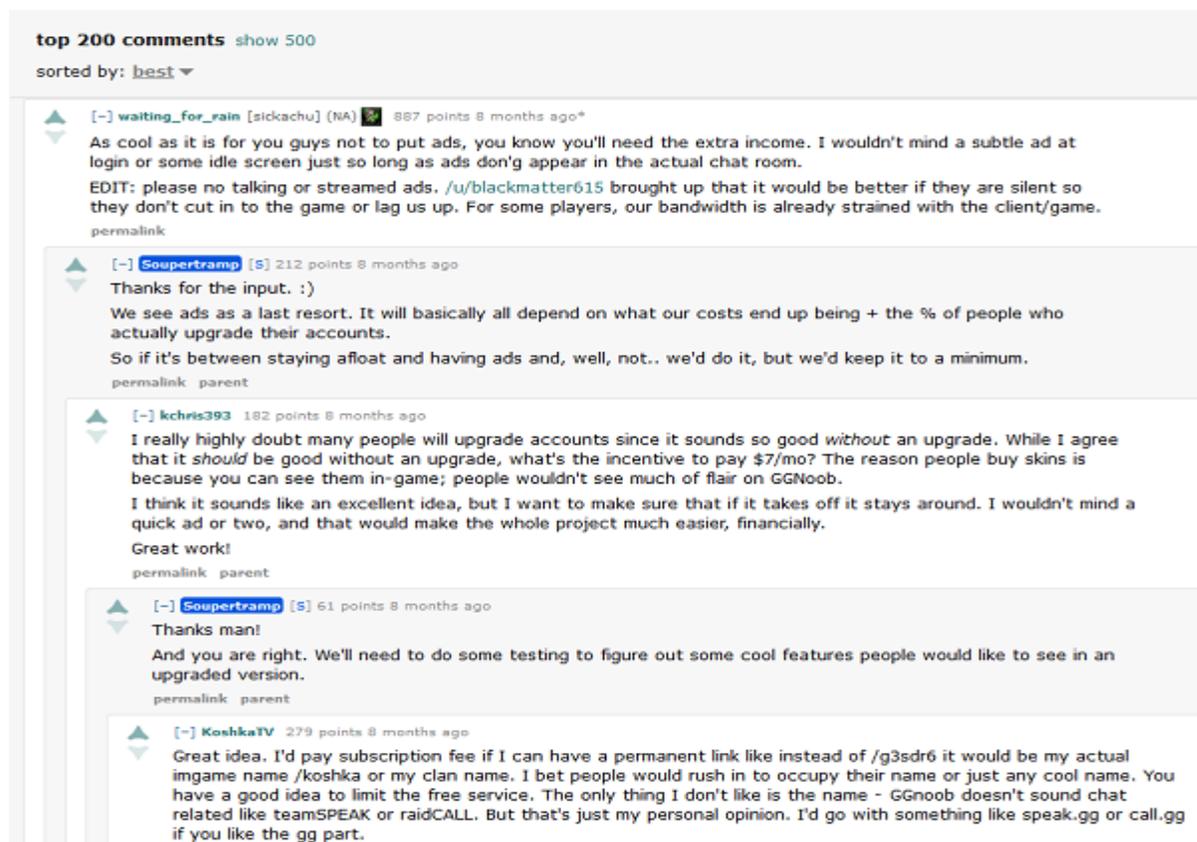

So they only allow unique and quality stuff for Reddit Audience. That can be the reason that most of the people keep themselves away from Reddit. But If you follow rules and provide some interesting things to Reddit users, then its surely going to be a Gold Mine For your business.

Best thing about Reddit is the perfect targeting of community for your business. That's what ASKMEANYTHING clicked and they posted on A subreddit "League Of Legends" with more than 600k users, about their new "voice chat program" to get feedback. And again the response was over whelming. The post got more than 1000 comments and engaged a large community on Reddit. This Reddit Post resulted in more than 15000 traffic in a single day.

As cool as it is for you guys not to put ads, you know you'll need the extra income. I wouldn't mind a subtle ad at login or some idle screen just so long as ads don't appear in the actual chat room.
EDIT: please no talking or streamed ads. /u/blackmatter615 brought up that it would be better if they are silent so they don't cut in to the game or lag us up. For some players, our bandwidth is already strained with the client/game.

Thanks for the input. :)
We see ads as a last resort. It will basically all depend on what our costs end up being + the % of people who actually upgrade their accounts.
So if it's between staying afloat and having ads and, well, not.. we'd do it, but we'd keep it to a minimum.

[-] kchris393 182 points 8 months ago
I really highly doubt many people will upgrade accounts since it sounds so good without an upgrade. While I agree that it should be good without an upgrade, what's the incentive to pay $7/mo? The reason people buy skins is because you can see them in-game; people wouldn't see much of flair on GGNoob.
I think it sounds like an excellent idea, but I want to make sure that if it takes off it stays around. I wouldn't mind a quick ad or two, and that would make the whole project much easier, financially.
Great work!

And you are right. We'll need to do some testing to figure out some cool features people would like to see in an upgraded version.

Great idea. I'd pay subscription fee if I can have a permanent link like instead of /g3sdr6 it would be my actual ingame name /koshka or my clan name. I bet people would rush in to occupy their name or just any cool name. You have a good idea to limit the free service. The only thing I don't like is the name - GGnoob doesn't sound chat related like teamSPEAK or raidCALL. But that's just my personal opinion. I'd go with something like speak.gg or call.gg if you like the gg part.

The team was very much amazed by the results of just a single post that was only looking for feedback. So they thought to give Reddit one more shot. This time they posted in a Subreddit of more than 700k users named as IAmA.

I've been traveling around the world without flying for 2.5 years, just crossed the Pacific Ocean on a cargo ship. AMA!

TRAVEL / TOURISM submitted 9 months ago * by ndoherty13

I'm a 32-year-old Irish man on a mission to circumnavigate the world without flying. I started from Ireland in 2011 and have made my way east through 25 countries so far. Last month I reached the Americas after spending 26 days crossing the Pacific Ocean aboard a cargo ship. I'm currently stopped in Cusco, Peru for a few weeks.

Here's a video I made of my Pacific Ocean crossing: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uj9yA7KjIuw>

UPDATE: Thanks everyone for the questions. I'll check back regularly to answer more. If you're interested in hearing more about my travels, I wrote a book while on the cargo ship. Reviews have been excellent. Grab a copy here: <http://www.ndoherty.com/books/cargo/>

Cheers!

ANSWERS TO FAQ'S (to save me repeating myself):

Q. How much did it cost to cross the Pacific Ocean on a cargo ship?

A. About $4.5k including banking, exchange and insurance fees.

Q. Why is it so expensive?

A. Best I can tell, because the cargo ship companies don't care. Taking passengers isn't their primary business. They're transporting multi-million dollar cargoes, so they probably figure that if they're going to take the odd passenger, they might as well charge a high price to make it worth their while.

Q. How can I book travel aboard a cargo ship?

A. See here: www.ndoherty.com/cargo-ship-2/

Q. How do you afford to travel like this?

A. I work online, doing freelance web design mostly. Need help with a project? Contact me here: <http://ndoherty.biz>

Once again the results were mind blowing. The post got around 3000 upvotes and more than 1300 comments. This engagement resulted in again some hide traffic and this time around 800$ sales were generated too on that single day. How Awesome More It Can be!!!!

It shows that you have to be creative and smart enough to work on Reddit and rest everything will be in large numbers whether it's the leads, traffic or even the sales,,

So are you exited now?

Ok Good 😊

Now Let us tell you in detail how Reddit work and how you can get the above success too.

Introduction

Today, you cannot ignore the power of social media, which is playing an effective role in boosting your online business. Social media is a powerful source to get targeted traffic to your content. Facebook, Twitter, Reddit, Stumble upon and Digg are the most powerful sources to bring traffic to your site.

When we talk about social networking, the right plan will be the power to bring a traffic swarm of social traffic to any site. The change in technology of mobile devices such as smart phone and tablets helps us to increase social networking activities and people want to get connected every time when they are free.

Driving traffic to your website is the key element for your online marketing success. Social media always has great importance in your online marketing strategy as it will generate a steady flow of traffic to you content. More traffic means more exposure so more money in your pocket.

Quality content is also a key but it doesn't mean that you have the best website; there are some other factors too like building and increasing your site audience. If you are answering visitors question consistently then it will help you build a greater audience for your site.

The best thing in online marketing success is generating quality traffic with least expensive method. Your ultimate goal is to increase your ROI (Return on Investment) by generating leads from your traffic. Google and Alexa rank is always matter but social media will help you to get real traffic without spending much for paid advertisement on different platforms.

What Is Reddit?

Reddit.com is a very much popular social network and is also a reliable news website where people can submit/post Images, links and text posts on different topics for a healthy discussion and they also drive lots and lots of free and quality target traffic to their websites and blogs. It is basically a bulletin board system, collecting entries submitted by its users.

Reddit is not like other social networks that are getting filled up with spammers and dead users. It has a strong and very active spamming filter which can catch you easily if you do not follow even a single rule, but if you do it very carefully, you can easily generate mass traffic you never seen before.

Using Reddit can be a bit hard for new members, which is why we compiled this useful and simple Reddit guide. Even you are still not convinced to use Reddit, here are some reasons that why you should not leave this opportunity on table.

Why You Should Be Using Reddit?

Reddit is one of the most powerful social network site which allow people to share and read news about every topic from all over the world. Reddit is one of most growing social news website in social media. We can submit a wide variety of content almost on every topic such as Entertainment, Culture, Fun, Pop, Web2.0 etc. But there are some and rules and regulation of each category and you have to stay around it.

Reddit is a social site where people come for news and Fun. So if you want to market your content then Reddit is best for you.

Why Reddit rather than using the other social media networks?

Here is question arise that why Reddit rather than using the other social media networks? Other networks have their own benefits, but here we are going to discuss about Reddit benefits and compare with other networks.

1. Google Adsense Friendly:

Reddit is far better than Facebook and other social networks other than that, Adsense like Reddit traffic as it gives low bounce rate and traffic from top countries like USA, UK, and Canada.

2. Syndication:

Reddit divides your traffic in different social networks and to many other websites through back linking.

3. Referral Traffic:

Reddit creates referral traffic for your site that helps to increase the overall rankings.

4. Free Top Notch SEO links:

Rank higher in Google with Reddit High Quality PR 8 Authority Backlinks. Reddit is marked as trusted by Google too and that's why one can get strong social signals too from Facebook that will surely boost up the rankings in search engines.

5. Time Worthy:

If you will spend more time on Reddit, it will automatically generate traffic for you from different social Media sites/networks! So, you don't have to worry about other networks.

6. Promotion Medium:

Even you are working on any online platform, you always need its promotion and marketing to increase its visibility for targeted visitors, so Social Media is best way to market your business online.

8. Premium Traffic:

Most of the users of reddit are mostly from USA, UK, and Europe etc. So you can get quality premium traffic from Reddit to your sites.

9. Traffic Quantity:

Just like other networks like Digg, Stumble Upon and other sites, Reddit front page navigation can also bring lots of traffic to your site if you handle it according to its rules.

10. Viral Marketing:

Reddit is a very effective network to go viral on social media without spending any penny on paid advertisement. Reddit front page show 25 links on the base of their positive up-votes. If you are able to get 20 Up-votes within first hours of submitting your links then you can easily get place on front page of Reddit which is hot news page. When you got a place on Reddit front page then you will get tons of quality free traffic easily Yeah! So get your servers upgraded too to handle the traffic swarm.

11. Content Marketing:

Reddit users are very efficient and active they love the quality content and also share and comment on it. If your content is good. You will get a great response from Reddit hyper active users. But if your content is irrelevant or not up to the Reddit rules then you will face a lot of criticism and in some cases your account may be banned too. So if you want to market your content then Reddit is best for you if you use it properly.

12. Wide Variety of Topics:

Reddit is one of the most growing social news websites in social media. We can submit a wide variety of content almost on every topic such as entertainment, culture, Fun, Pop, Web2.0 etc. But there are some rules and regulations for each category and you have to stay around it.

13. Build Readership:

Reddit also helps you get consistent readers for your blog and building long term audience for your blogs. You can easily do this when you are going with a proper plan to catch the power of social networking. Like Digg and Stumble upon, if you are able to get a push on the first page of hot news in Reddit, you can easily get a traffic blast on your site and your post can go viral. Also you can convert and monetize this traffic for long term.

14. Free Social Signals:

Social signals also help you in getting organic rank in SERP. You can easily get social signals for your content by sharing on Reddit.

My Simple 3 Step Formula for Getting Reddit Traffic Swarm

Step 1: Create a verified Reddit account

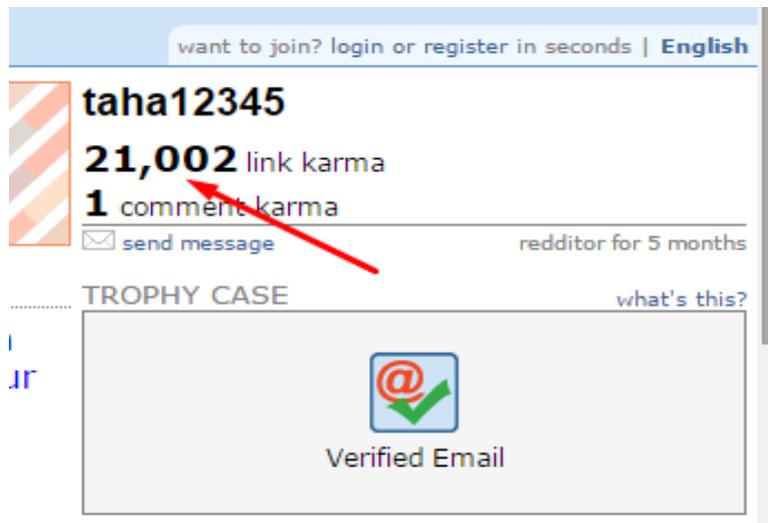

Step 2: Share funny images and get link karma 100

Step 3: After that share your content in relevant subreddit and get them on front page by getting up votes (read the method below)

Boom!!! Reddit Magnet will attract lots and lots of free traffic for you.

Reddit can be a powerful source of targeted traffic if you follow simple rules. We were able to get 8k+ audience just in one day by using a 1 months old profile with link karma 21,002.

We have used the method which I have discussed in this eBook and I was able to get link Karma of 21002. After that our team starts promoting our blog contents there.

We have created a post on a blog on topic that is trending in that niche with attractive title and description and add some images. After posting it on my blog, I have shared it on Reddit and up-voted with my minor accounts.

After 24 hours, when I check the stats, the analytics showing 8k+ visitors from Reddit.

That Reddit post got 3016 up-votes and 248 comments. And in next 3 days, we have got a decent audience from Reddit.

This is the potential of reddit and you can exploit it for your business. We just tested reddit as a fun and it turns out to be great for us.

How I Got 1800+ Downloads Of An Android App Within 24 hrs From Reddit?

I tried a small experiment to find some mobile traffic on Reddit and was really surprised by the results.

I submitted one of my android apps in relevant subreddit and as a result I got 50% more downloads on my android app on that day. Here is the link to the Reddit post.

How I Got Tons and Tons of Views on My Images

The purpose of showing these stats is to show the potential of Reddit. Anyone can drive such traffic to his/her blog and easily and convert it.

The only point you must have to follow is to follow Reddit rules and submit unique and latest stuff on Reddit in relevant SubReddits.

Imagine that you have share the link of your one blog post and has submitted it on Reddit.com in the relevant category. After sometime you check your blog analytics and analyze your blog traffic stats and find that you received near about 100 unique visitor of your blog.

Then after some hours, again you check the traffic stats and become shock that you site hits 1000+ .

What does this mean?

Actually after people start doing up votes to your post and share it on other social media like Twitter and Facebook which results in more traffic to your blog.

Well, it only takes two minutes for you to submit link on Reddit and you can get 100+ visitor on your blog within few hours.

How Reddit Works?

First thing that you need to know about Reddit is that how Reddit works?

Reddit allows people to share links and images and people on Reddit up-vote these link if they like or down-vote them if they dislike. Even if they are giving a down vote it still means that those users are at least visiting your site once

The authority of a Reddit profile is judged by link karma and comment karma of that profile. The more you have link and comment karma, the more you have authority and more people will up-vote your link.

“The number next to a username is called that user's "karma." It reflects how much good the user has done for the reddit community. The best way to gain karma is to submit links that other people like and vote for, though you won't get karma for self posts.”

If other Reddit users up vote your comments on Reddit posts, you will gain comment karma and if people up vote your Reddit submitted links then your link karma will increase.

The main problem where 90% people stuck on Reddit is that they can't able to increase their profile link karma. People thought it's a big headache to increase link karma so stop working on it.

This is really a big misunderstanding. Have you ever thought that you can increase you link karma from 0 to 1000's within a day. Yes, it is possible if you work on it. Here we go that how you can increase your link karma too fast.

Reddit has very easy interface with everything on the front page so you can easily signup as on other social sites. The navigation bar is very easy to pick categories where you want to read new news. You can easily found news about every topic by just navigating from top categories.

Creating a Powerful & Safe Reddit Account

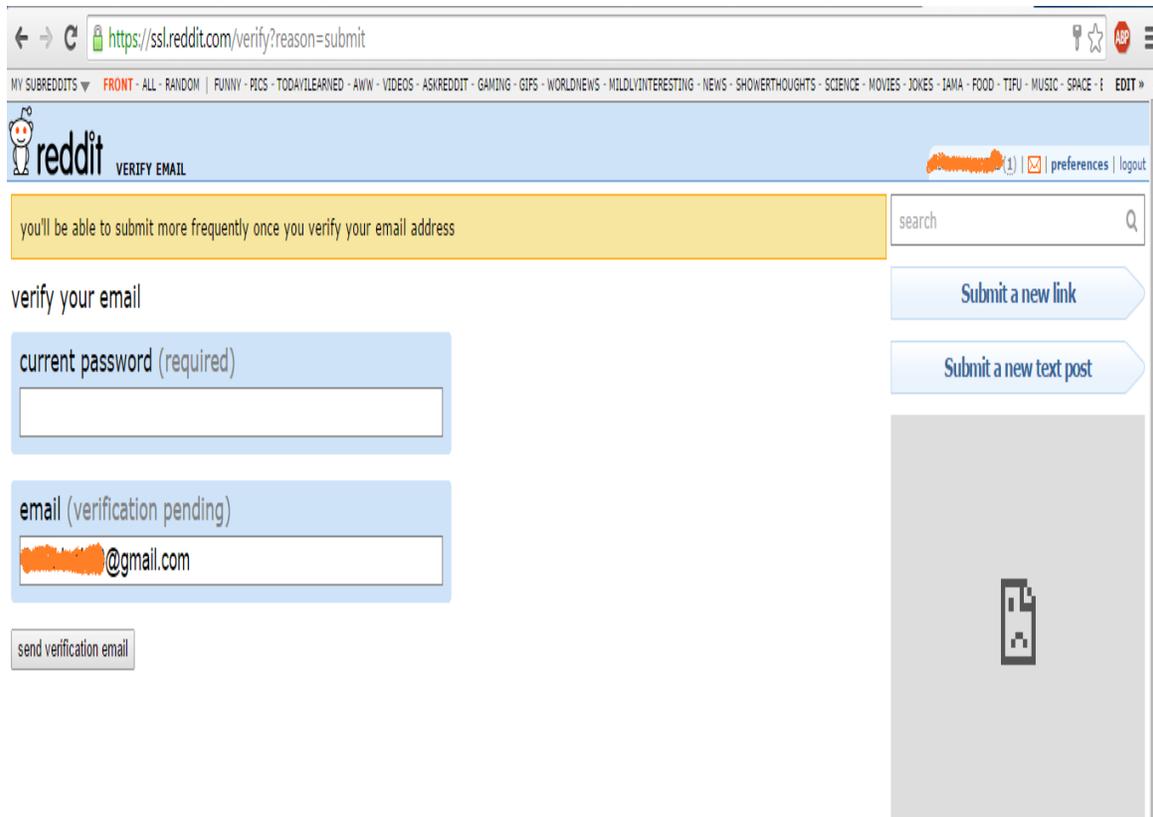

First of all go to reddit.com and click on register.

A screenshot of the Reddit homepage in a web browser. The address bar shows 'www.reddit.com' with a red arrow pointing to it. The page header includes the Reddit logo, navigation tabs (hot, new, rising, controversial, top, gilded, wiki, promoted), and a registration prompt: 'want to join? sign in or create an account in seconds | English'. A red arrow points from this prompt to the 'create an account' link. Below the header is a search bar and a login section with fields for 'username' and 'password', a 'remember me' checkbox, a 'reset password' link, and a 'login' button. A 'Submit a new link' button is also visible. A promotional banner for the AMA app is shown, along with a 'Submit a new text post' button. At the bottom, there is a 'trending subreddits' section with a list of subreddits and a comment count.

Try to use a real name instead of a brand name or any name related to your niche. An account with real name will obviously will look more natural.

The image shows a screenshot of the Reddit website's account creation and sign-in interface. On the left, under the heading "CREATE A NEW ACCOUNT", there are four input fields: "choose a username", "password", "verify password", and "email (optional)". Below these fields is a checkbox labeled "remember me" and a blue "CREATE ACCOUNT" button. On the right, under the heading "SIGN IN", there are two input fields: "username" and "password". Below these fields are a checkbox labeled "remember me" and a link "reset password". A blue "SIGN IN" button is positioned to the right of the "password" field. At the bottom of the form area, there is a small text block: "We care about your privacy, and we never spam. By creating an account, you agree to reddit's User Agreement and Privacy Policy. We're proud of them, and you should read them."

After creating your account, it's time to verify it. Reddit has not made it necessary to verify your email but verifying email will be a plus point. After creating reddit account, if you don't receive a verification email as most of the time reddit does not send it, then verify your account via <https://ssl.reddit.com/verify?reason=submit>

Most Important: One thing is most important here regarding having Reddit accounts that do not create more than 3 Reddit accounts on a specific IP. If you want to create multiple Reddit accounts and want to use them safely and securely then use a VPN or different proxy while creating multiple accounts. And same for using multiple accounts at a time, you must switch between multiple IP's to keep your Reddit accounts safe from ban.

Submitting a Link on Reddit

So now that you have created your Reddit account and verified it too, it's time to submit links.

Important Note: After creating a new Reddit account do not start promoting your own links first. To promote your own links you must have to attain 100+ Link Karma as it will help to promote your link too well.

Well it seems very easy to submit a link on Reddit but it's not so easy. There are some rules you have to follow before submitting any link on Reddit. Some common rules are

- Don't Spam.
- No child pornography.
- Don't post your personal information.
- Don't mention "up-vote please".

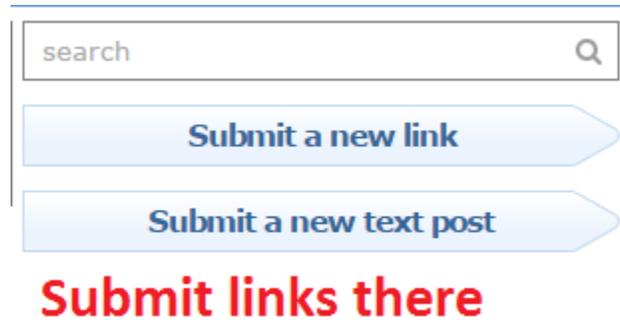

But there is also some other which is not clearly mentioned but you have to follow to avoid complete or shadow ban on Reddit. You must Always submit link in most relevant category/subreddit.

Each category is just like community on Reddit so they have their own rules which you have to follow to submit link in that specific category.

If you are not following the rule of a community and submitting a link there then they immediately shadow ban you.

Before submitting a direct of any post in any category or Reddit, you must have a high link Karma above 50 or above 100 is recommended.

After logging into your account, you can submit links by clicking on the Submit a New link Button or simply you can go to this link <http://www.reddit.com/submit>

Just enter a catchy and interesting title and url, Select a relevant subreddit and click submit. Boom you have just submitted a link on Reddit. Isn't it simple?

There is another way of submitting your links to a relevant subreddit. If you can't find a relevant subreddit in the options given by Reddit, you can find one.

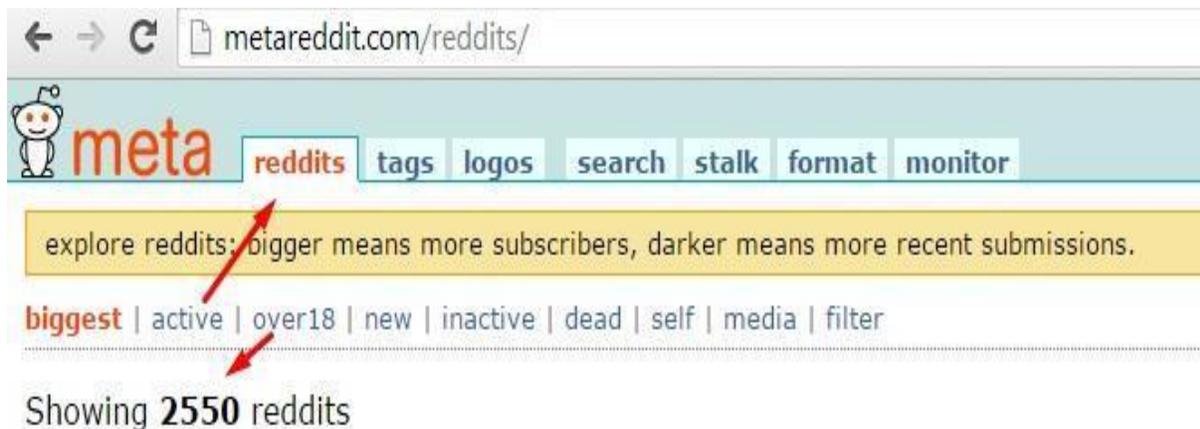

Find a Relevant Category/Subreddit on Reddit

Choosing a right category on Reddit for your link is very important to get more up votes and increase link karma. So here is method you can do it easily.

Most people submit links in a category by finding or Reddit. This is simple way in which you may able to find right category for your post so there is a little risk factor involve.

To get fully satisfaction that you have submitted link in right category, there is a website <http://metareddit.com/> where you can easily a relevant category for your link. Visit above mentioned site and click on the Reddit. Now there are lots of categories where you can find exact category for your link.

Recommendation: Most of Sub-Reddits don't allow submitting links from external site or for promotional purpose. So first read all the rules or check if other members already have submitted their links. You can also research before submitting the link at website <http://metareddit.com/>.

How to Check Shadow Ban?

Always remember, do not try to spam by submitting a lot of links as your account will be shadow banned and your website can be permanently banned in Reddit.

Reddit is getting hard day by day. They didn't notify you when they shadow ban you. But there are two ways you can check that either your profile is shadow ban or not.

One way is that open you profile link in new tab and copy your profile link.

Open another browser like if you are using chrome then open Mozilla or vice versa.

Now open your profile here by pasting profile link in it. If your profile page will open then your profile is active. If a “nothing found” will open then your profile is shadow ban.

Second way is that open this link

<http://nullprogram.com/am-i-shadowbanned/> in any browser.

Just write your profile name or URL and hit enter.

This site will tell you that your profile is normal or ban.

Well after creating an account people don't think that first they should learn how Reddit works.

How to Get Started With Reddit?

Step1: Account & Profile Setup

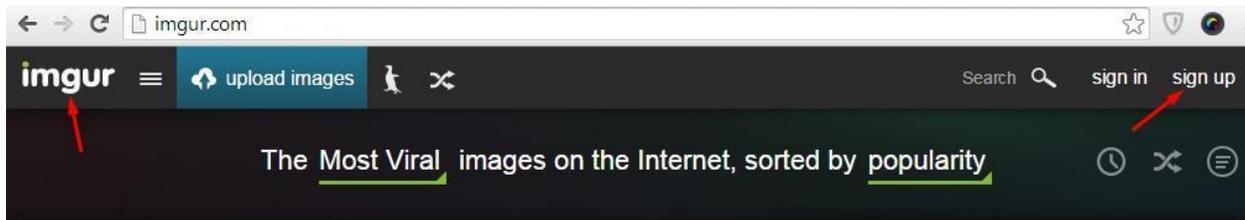

Create an account on Reddit with real name and email. After creating account, you need to verify it by email. Sometime Reddit does not send you verification link. For verification, click on the preference tab and then click the password/email tab. You will find the verification of your email here. Now you are ready to work on Reddit.com

Step 2: Gain Some Link Karma

First thing you have to do is increase your link karma to be able to get mass traffic from Reddit. The concept behind the increase of link karma is that how many people up-vote your contents in a specific period of time. So you need share content in which people are interested and will share it to others.

Recommended: You must have 100 link karma before going to share links from external site.

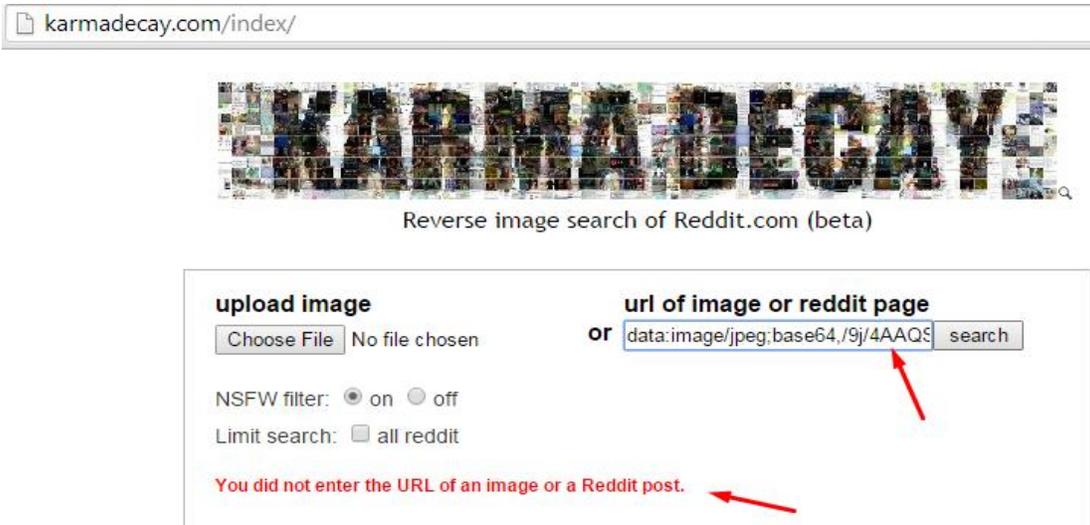

After successfully creating an account on Reddit.com now go to <http://imgur.com/> and create an account there. Imgur.com is an image hosting and sharing site and where you can upload images and can share on Reddit.com without any problem.

Now collect some images from Google or from other sites. If you want that more people up-vote your image, you need to share unique images there.

Here is a secret tip for finding unique images that will increase you link karma like a rocket :

After collecting images you need to check that these images are unique or not? So to check this, go to <http://karmadecay.com/> and copy your image link from Google or elsewhere and paste it there. This site will tell that your image is unique or already shared on Reddit.com.

Now when you finally know got the image that is attractive and also unique and not already shared on the Reddit.com. Then go to the <http://imgur.com> and upload it there. After uploading it there, you need to share it on Reddit.com in the right category.

Step 3: Selecting Right Subreddit

When you are you are sharing anything on Reddit.com, Keep in mind that you should select the right category for your image, video or any other link. If you not do this, then you will be banned immediately on Reddit. For the right selection of category, you have to use <http://metareddit.com/>.

For example you are going to share a funny image then most appropriate category is

<http://www.reddit.com/r/funny> rather than

<http://www.reddit.com/r/pics>.

Category must be related to the content when you are going to share as it will increase the chance getting more up-votes and you will be save from banning on Reddit. After sharing unique images, you need to get up-votes. If you able to get 20 up-votes within an hour, then you are image automatically shifted to hot news tab and people start sharing it and up-vote this.

Step 4: Its Ninja Mode :

After the 10-10-2014 update, Reddit become very strict now and not allowing more than 3 accounts per IP. But still you can manage 6 accounts per IP by this method.

First you should have both browsers (Firefox and Chrome) installed on your system. Make three accounts on Reddit from Firefox. After that switch to chrome and first install the any proxy for changing the IP address.

I will recommend you use zenmate for this purpose which is work best for me so far. Set the location of your IP to US server and then open the Reddit.com and create another three accounts.

Now you have you have total 6 accounts on Reddit. You have to choose one account for getting link karma and others are as helper to up-voters to increase the Karma of the main account.

You can easily attract the Reddit audience to get their vote for our images and links.

- 1-Always make sure that write interesting eye catching title for your post.
- 2-Description of your post should be what your post about and catch the attention of reader.
- 3-Don't use Reddit suggestion as it will not provide you attractive title.

4- Trending or events images are very handy to gain more votes.

Now select and share image on Reddit from main account using the step 2.

After sharing image from your main account, switch to other accounts and up-vote it and do some comments. Now if you are able to get more up-votes then you will see a rapid increase in your link Karma.

Tip: If you have some online friend then you can ask them to create an account on Reddit and then up-vote our links. You can also join Reddit Up-votes groups on Facebook where people up-vote each other links.

More Ways to Get Up Votes:

Here are some top active Facebook Groups to exchange upvotes for your reddit submissions.

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/redditPro/>

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/734121159964581/>

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/Votemefast/>

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/RedditUpVote/>

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/redditclub/>

It seems difficult to manage six accounts by signing in them one by one and upvoting links.

But here is solution for it.

Install an extension in your browsers at <http://redditenhancementsuite.com>. You can also find this extension at the bottom of your Reddit account. This extension helps you to quickly switch to your Reddit accounts from one another.

After installing this extension, add your all accounts in this extension. Then switch to each account by using this. This will not consider in spam and also Reddit allows you to do this. But keep in mind only 3 accounts from one IP so use proxy for rest of others.

Now you have to be patient and wait until your link karma reaches to 100. After that you can share your sites links and other contents. If you can't wait for 100 link karma of your main account then you can easily also get it from Fiverr.com or seoclerk.com

Manage All Social Accounts from One Gmail Account

This is very special method in which you can you manage all of you social account from one Gmail account. This will help your in managing your all social accounts like Reddit, Twitter, Facebook, Pinterest, Stumble upon and other social accounts from one Gmail account.
