As you can see, on the screenshots the alexa rank of my sites are getting lower and lower. And I am not using any bots or alexa manipulation software to get those results.

The methods you will learn in this guide are mostly free and very inexpensive when you compare them with other traffic providers. A healthy combination of seo and traffic pulling sites is the key to success. Don't believe those ones who say you must pay hundreds and hundreds and even thousands of dollars for advertising....this is really BS my friends!

The only and legit answer for generating long-term and effective traffic is to find the right sites, the right owners and making them to your friends 😊 Ok, it sounds little bit diabolic but without bad intention. I like the guys with whom I am working because they know their stuff. They have a very high knowledge in seo, backlink building and traffic generation.

But who am I? Let me introduce myself a little bit: My name is Alper Aribal. I am a German-Turkish internet marketer and I am born and living in Germany. I am 32 years old and married to a very kind woman. And I have a really cute dog 😊 I have started a lot of projects here in Germany, but here is no space for doing business like in English speaking areas. I had my success with IM Launches in 2012. I have launched a Seo Software called EpicTrafficBot with 2 friends and we have made over $23,000 in revenue within 3 weeks as shown below:

Pretty cool, right? YES – it is cool when you don't spend a fortune to achieve those results. This product made us over 250+ sales. I was very happy with the results. In February 2014 I launched another SEO Product called TubeSeoRanker. This project is still selling and we have sold 440+ copies so far and this is not the end by far – I am pretty sure ;-)

Here is the proof:

Product Name	Date	Copies Sold	Price per Copy	Total Sales
Tube Seo Ranker	2014-01-15	441	$11.95	$5,270.00
Tube Sleuth $1 Trial	2014-01-15	32	$4.92	$157.30
NUS - test	2013-09-10	6	$0.01	$0.06
Best BlackHat Forum VIP Membership	2014-04-04	0	$0.00	$0.00

Below the table, there is a warning: "Warning Your sales page should have a JVZoo.com buy button on it. Verify". At the bottom, there is a section for "Additional Functions:" with a button labeled "TEST DRIFTBUSS".

But I will stop here. I am not interested in bothering you with a tsunami of screenshots saying blablabla.

But the fact is I am making these figures shown in the screenshots. I am not saying that you will make the same amount of money, but when you have the right traffic sources and the right product that appeals to a crowd, then you will succeed sooner or later.

Ok – let's start with our main traffic guide. You will be blown away because if you do it right, you will get good results.

Chapter 1: Paid Traffic Sources

1a. Niche Watch Advertising Packages

Let's start with this first great source of getting internet marketing related traffic. NicheWatch.com is a very big site related to seo stuff, traffic stuff and other IM related stuff. Why? Because the site is owned by backlinkwatch.com and digpagerank.com. The screenshots below show you how much traffic this site is getting:

I mean you can't be wrong with targeting those sites. These sites are asking for much less advertising money as the well-known names in the industry. You will not knock the door of poorness when you try out these guys.

Besides the cheap advertising possibilities on these sites, there is another very important aspect that you must keep in mind. These guys are seo professionals and they know their stuff. These are specialists in onpage and offpage seo and they have a lot backlinks pointing to their sites.

Here is an example:

According to smallseotools.com Backlinkwatch has a backlink count of 109,000 as shown below

Total backlinks: 109000

1	http://www.xmarks.com/site/www...	6	2	www.backlinkwatch.com - Similar Sites and Reviews Xmarks
2	http://www.youtube.com/watch?v...	9	N/A	Backlinkwatch com - Monitorare i link al sito - YouTube
3	http://www.youtube.com/all_com...	9	N/A	Page 1 of comments on Backlinkwatch com - Monitorare i link al sito ...
4	http://www.smallbusinessbrief...	5	N/A	Google Link Check And Backlinkwatch.com - Small Business Brief
5	http://www.smallbusinessbrief...	5	N/A	Google Link Check And Backlinkwatch.com - Small Business Brief

You can't ignore those facts. And they are really affordable and they place your advertisements in a very clever way – so you will get only the most exposure.

On <http://www.nichewatch.com/advertise.php> you can check their advertising packages.

The price range for advertising on their network is very cheap. They start by $15 and go up to $50 for every 30 days.

AND: You can pay a lot more and get advertised to their 8000 subscribers via mailing. Ok, I have to admit that $400 for a mailing is maybe not affordable for everyone, but this is only a one time payment and you can reach a targeted audience that is interested in any kind of internet marketing related stuff. To be honest – 0.05 cent per user for a mailing is cheaper than the mailings of some solo ad sellers. Solo Ad sellers mostly ask from anywhere 0.30 cents – 0.40 cents per user for a solo mailing. By 8000 subscribers you would burn a hole in your wallet. Here a little math: $8000 \text{ subscribers} \times 0.30 \text{ cents} = \underline{$2400 !!!}$

So – all in all NicheWatch Advertising Packages are very affordable compared with other sources. Try it if you are serious about your business.

Let's go to the next traffic source....

1b. Stuffgate.com Advertising

StuffGate is another great source for getting affordable traffic to your sites. An important aspect is again THE TRAFFIC you can get from them. Look below:

Stuffgate.com is getting a lot of traffic from alexa and organic search traffic from search engines as you can see here:

A very good aspect of putting your advertisement on this site is the fact that they place your advertisement directly on the main page stuffgate.com. So, you will get a lot of exposure from visitors because your advertisement will jump straight away in an eye-catching manner.

Ok – not the cheapest one again – but for getting 30 days of enormous exposure on the frontpage of stuffgate.com – it is worth the money.

Let`s go to the next traffic source...

1c. Twickerz.com – The hidden source for quality Traffic

Twickerz.com is a PaidToClick site that has served over 200,000 affiliates worldwide and has paid over $300,000 to their affiliates. And the site is online since 2011. 3 damn years 😊 so I don't need to talk about the quality of the site right? YES, you are right!

The Alexa Screenshot below

Shows again that the site has an exorbitant traffic rank worldwide. And the best aspect is not only the traffic – twickerz.com really offers reasonable advertising packages that you can check out here:

<http://www.twickerz.com/index.php?view=advertise>

In the past I have promoted my site Plr2k.com with twickerz advertising and my alexa rank was under 30,000 worldwide. This is better than any dubious both if you ask me.

As you can see I show you only high traffic sites to get you the most benefit from them.

And this is not the end by far.

So let's have a look at the next traffic source...

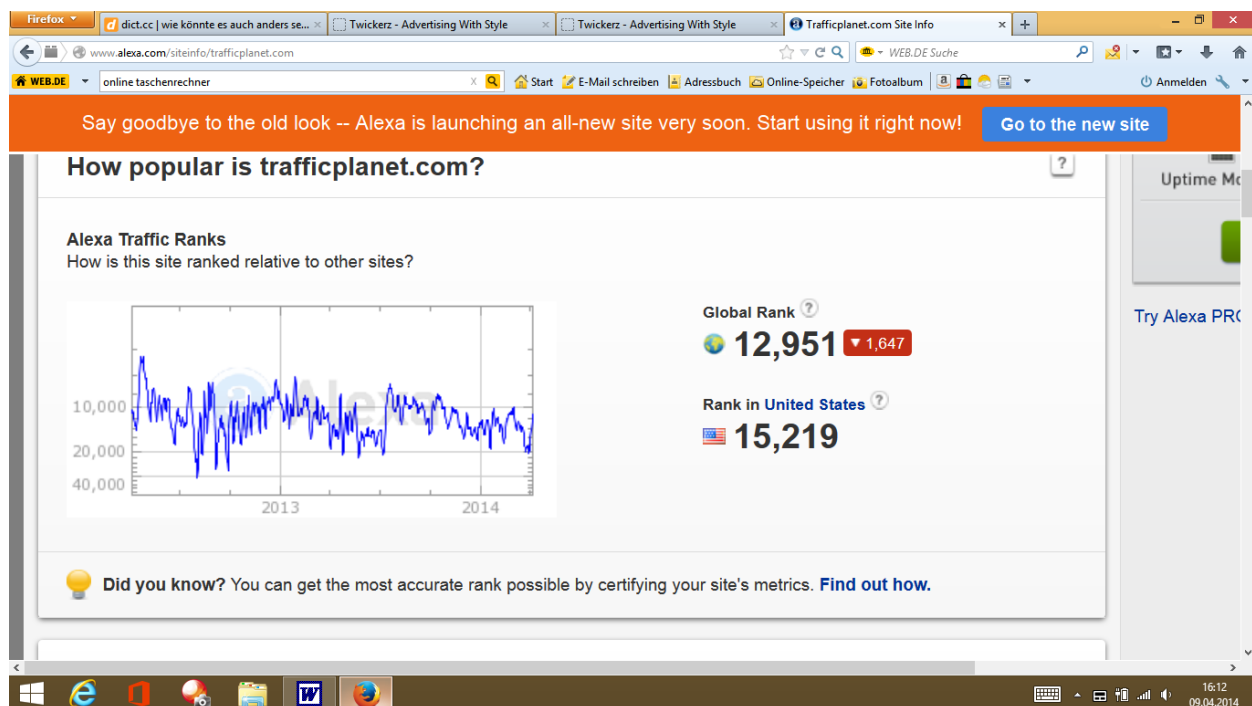

1d. TrafficPlanet.com

This is another great high traffic site. TrafficPlanet is a forum and they don't deal only with traffic related stuff. Any other IM related stuff like on warriorforum.com is welcome on their forum.

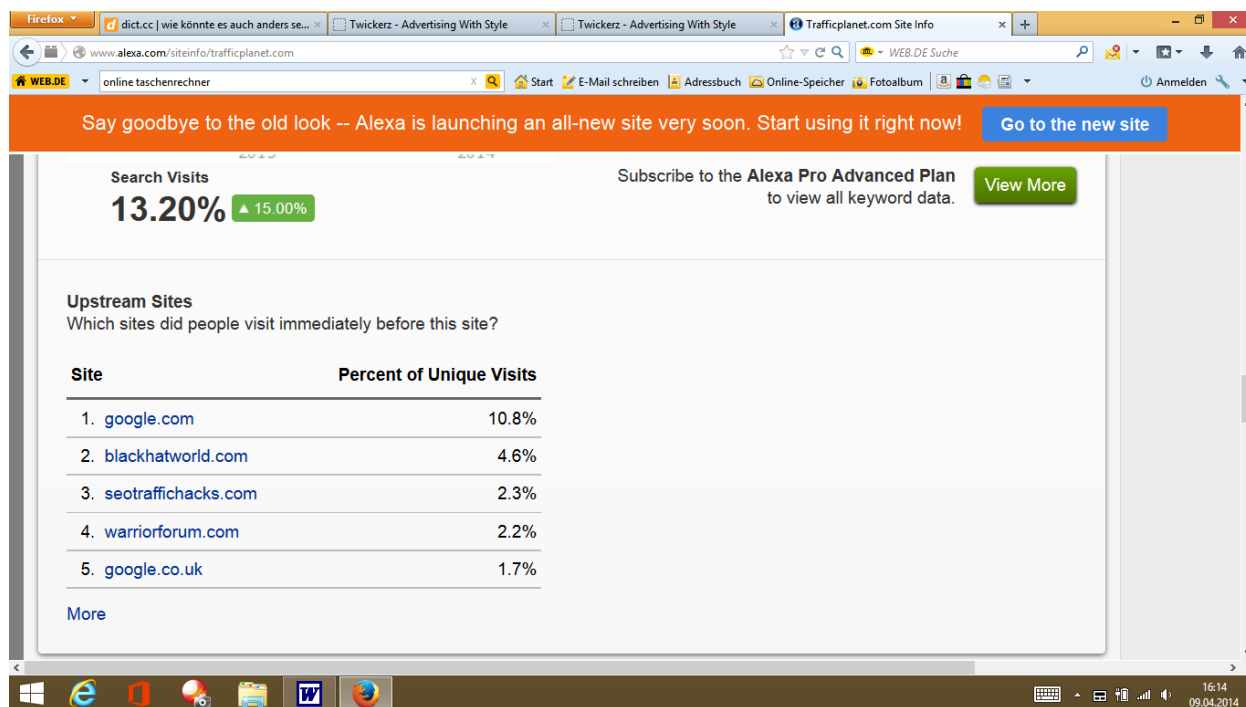

TrafficPlanet has a real good support and they are also endeavour to help any member with any support queries.

Beside this - the traffic as again an essential point that you must consider.

Look here:

Alexa Rank is under 13,000 worldwide. And TrafficPlanet gets his traffic from very established sites as you can see in the following screenshot:

As you can see, the site has enough reputation and traffic to deliver you the traffic you deserve and for that you are looking for.

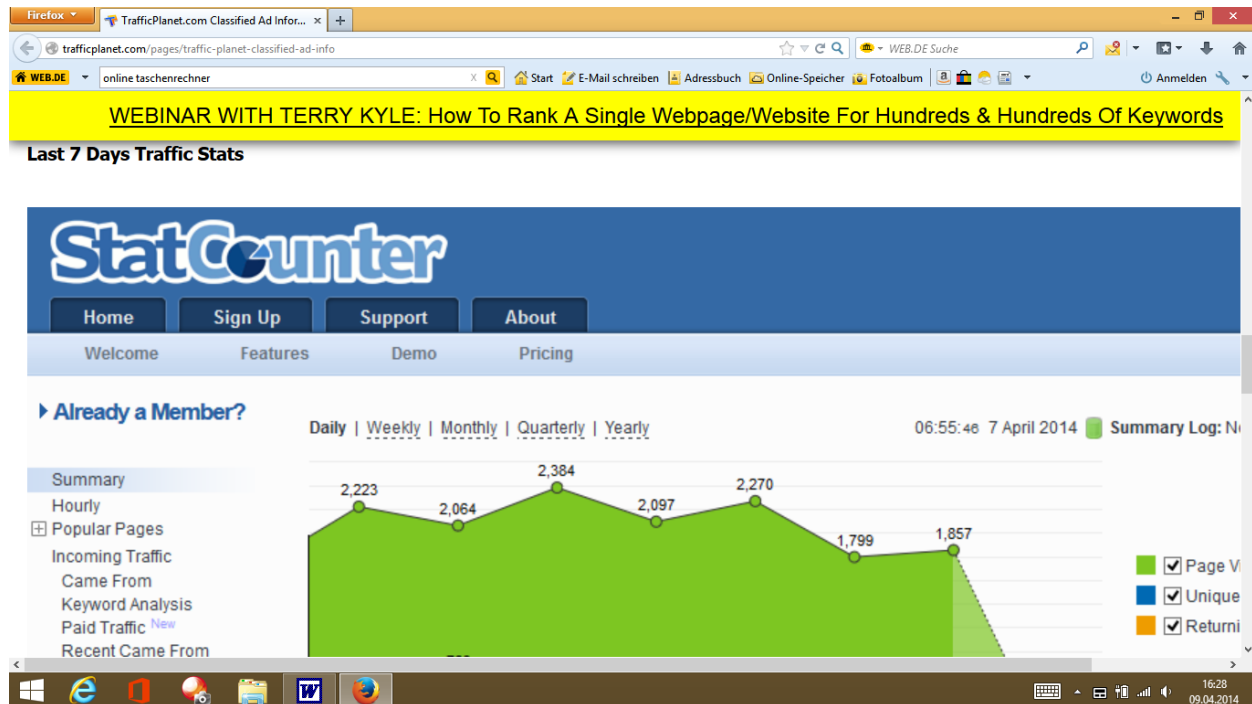

TrafficPlanet.com offers 2 ways of advertising – Banner & Classified Advertising.

Banner Advertising Packages start from $25/month and ends up by $75 a month. Still very affordable because the site has huge traffic and for those prices your ads will be visible only on the high traffic areas of the site. For example: Your different banner ads will be placed on every page in the forum, on the end of every thread post or in the category section of every topic.

You can and will get a lot exposure to your sites cause TrafficPlanet has over 11,000 members and they are very active.

The other advertising opportunity on trafficplanet.com is the classified advertising. But for this option you have to be at least TrafficPlanet Member for 30 days and you must provide at least 20 high quality and helpful posts to the forum.

The Classified Advertising worth it according to these traffic stats:

The TrafficPlanet Classified Advertising will cost you $29.95/month – but i say it again – this traffic sources worth it cause they are still very affordable when you compare it with the prices of other forums, e.g. such as blackhatworld.com

Ok! I believe you loved the traffic sources I have shown you till now. So, don't let me stop here.

1e. Get Traffic with Webwire.com

Here's a simple & cheap way to have your press release (along with links to your product or site of course) show up in Google News's results in about 10 minutes.

1. Just go to <http://www.webwire.com> & register. (it's free)
2. Click the Submit A Release button inside your account dashboard
3. Create your press release (On the site you will get also a tip for press release writing)
4. Use their 'webpost service' ($29.95) & your press release will show up in Google News & many other major online news sites within minutes.

Look here what you can get for $29.95:

The screenshot shows the WebWire.com website in a Firefox browser. The main heading is "NEWS RELEASE DISTRIBUTION" in red. Below it, a subheading reads "Get your news directly to an Internet audience!". The primary service advertised is "WebPost® - U$29.95 per submission", which allows users to submit news directly to an Internet audience. A description states that this service places releases within a highly trafficked website, instantly indexable by major search engines, and ports messages to news aggregators like Google News, Bing News, Topix.com, and Ask.com. It also mentions syndicated outlets and RSS feeds. A secondary service, "WebPost® PPC - U$129.95 per submission", is also listed, which includes the WebPost® service and places releases within Google Search results based on specific keywords. On the right side, there is a sidebar with a "WebWire Distribution Services" menu containing links for "Overview", "News Release Distribution", and "Press Release Distribution". Below this is a "WebPost® Distribution" section with a list of benefits: defining the message, defending the brand, generating internet-based publicity, making the message instantly available to major news sites and RSS recipients, and making content immediately indexable by major search engines. The browser's address bar shows the URL "www.webwire.com/news-release-distribution.asp".

If you have a large budget you can use also Webwire.com's other Press Release Distribution services – most are OneTime Payments. You will profit doing this because when you follow their submissions guidelines you can get huge exposure from Google News. Nothing could be better than that – right? 😊

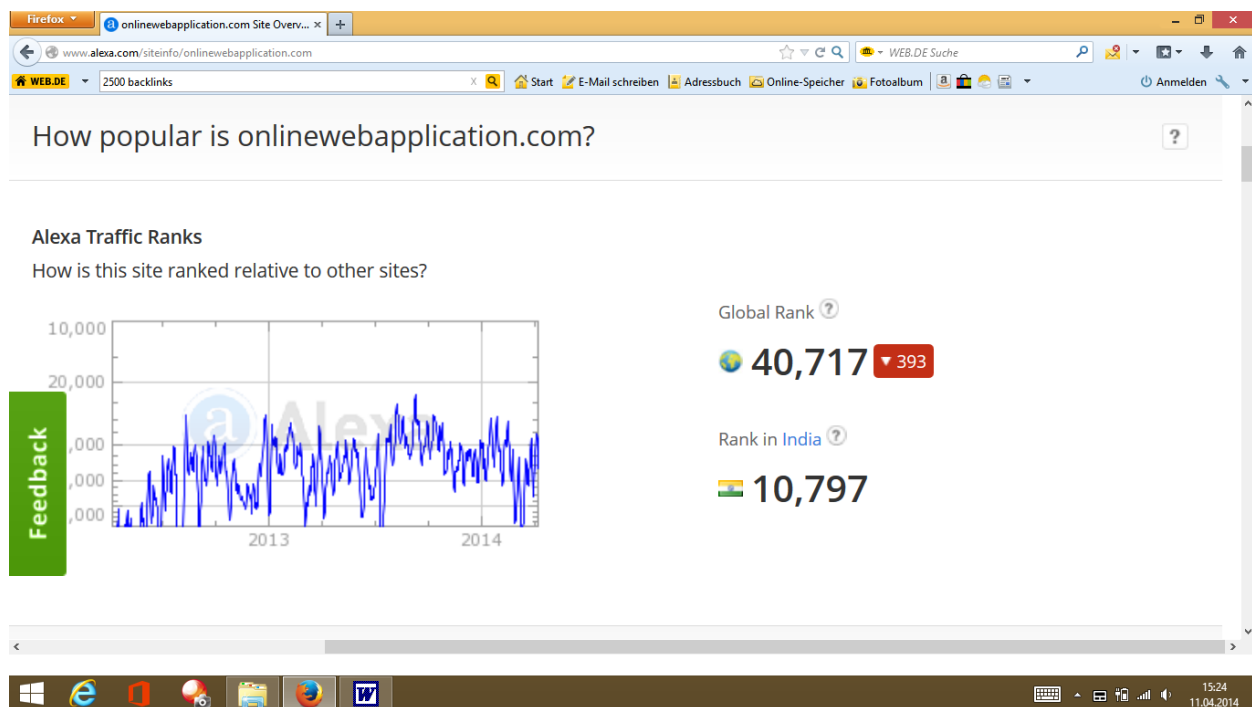

Also be sure to do your keyword research & use your release not only for traffic & publicity but to build your backlinks too.

I will switch over to the next chapter....the free & paid traffic sources.

Chapter 2: Free & Paid Traffic Sources

2a. OnlineWebApplication.com

OnlineWebApplication.com is a technologies, seo & social media blog. It ranks for over 100 keyword terms in Google and has a low Alexa Traffic Rank has shown below:

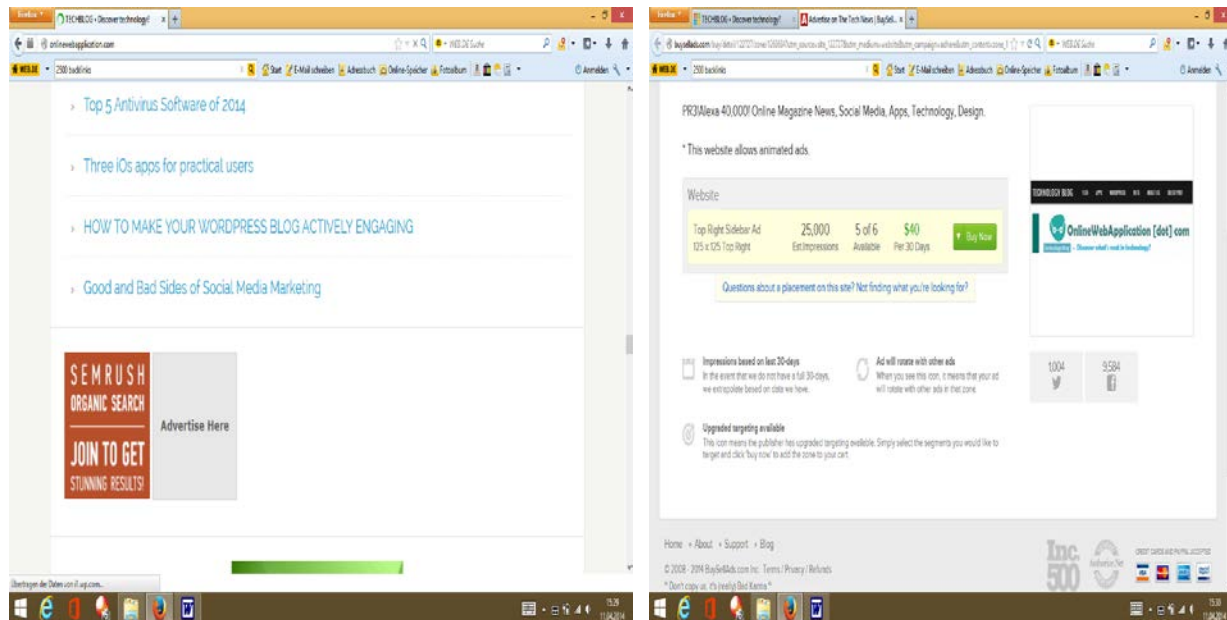

The Blog Moderators are really nice and very hard-working to keep the good rankings for their blog.

All content is unique and the owners writing them personally to keep the quality high.

I am working actually with them and promoting my sites 2500backlinks.com, tubeseoranker.com and globalikes.com (on another very good blog of them – will be discussed later in this guide)

You have here 2 options of advertising. The first way is to pay $40 for 30 days and get published on the main page of OnlineWebApplication.com

The 2nd option is to ask for a guest post on the blog. If your article is a good fit to the categories on their blog and have high quality standards, you will get published 100%.

And the guest posting option will be beneficial for you – why? Because OnlineWebApplication.com has over 5000+ readership. Every time a post is published they send automatically notifications to their subscribers and your article has a very good chance to get in front of the eyes of over 5000+ loyal readers. Beside the mentioned advantages above, the blog has also a very strong social media presence. They have over 1000 real Twitter followers and over 10,000 real Facebook fans. Your article will be published on that accounts too. With these powerful social media connections your post will be distributed over the internet by ReTweets and Likes.

OnlineWebApplication.com Advertising – paid & free – is a very long-term beneficial thing. The blog owners are seo specialists and they really pay attention to their readers/subscribers and to improve the good rankings of their blog in the SERP's

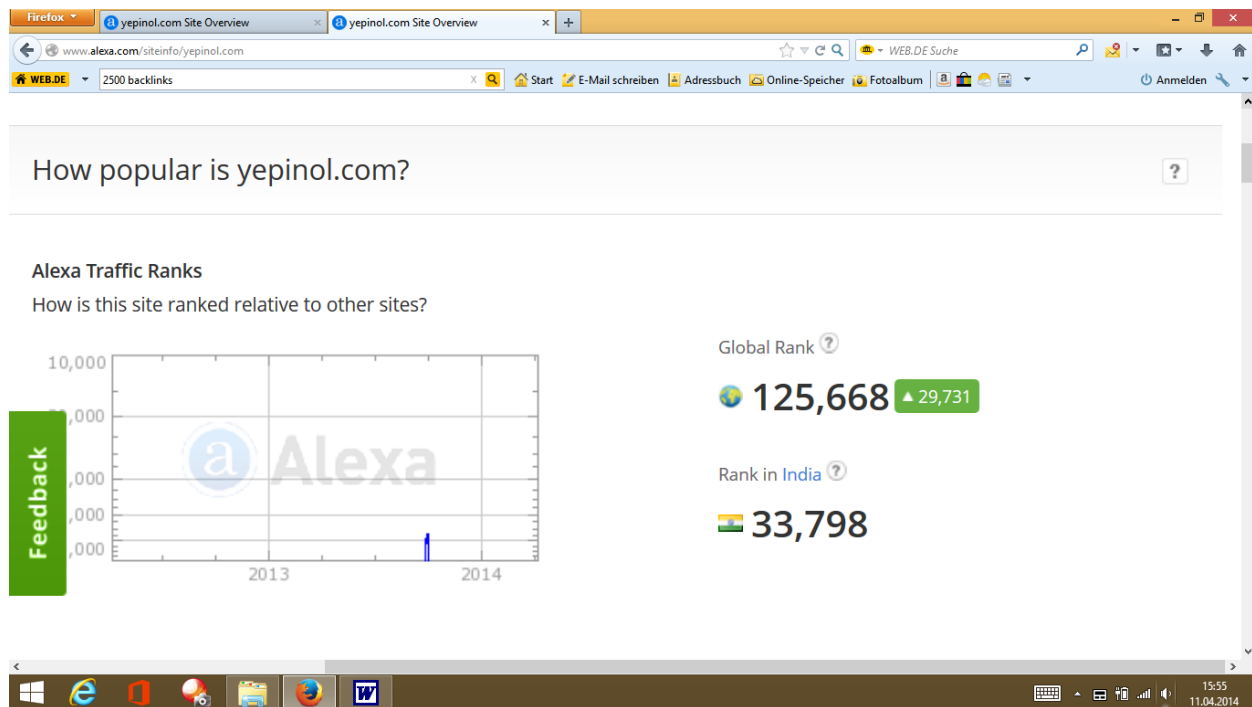

Ok....you are amazed from this cheap and free traffic driving source?

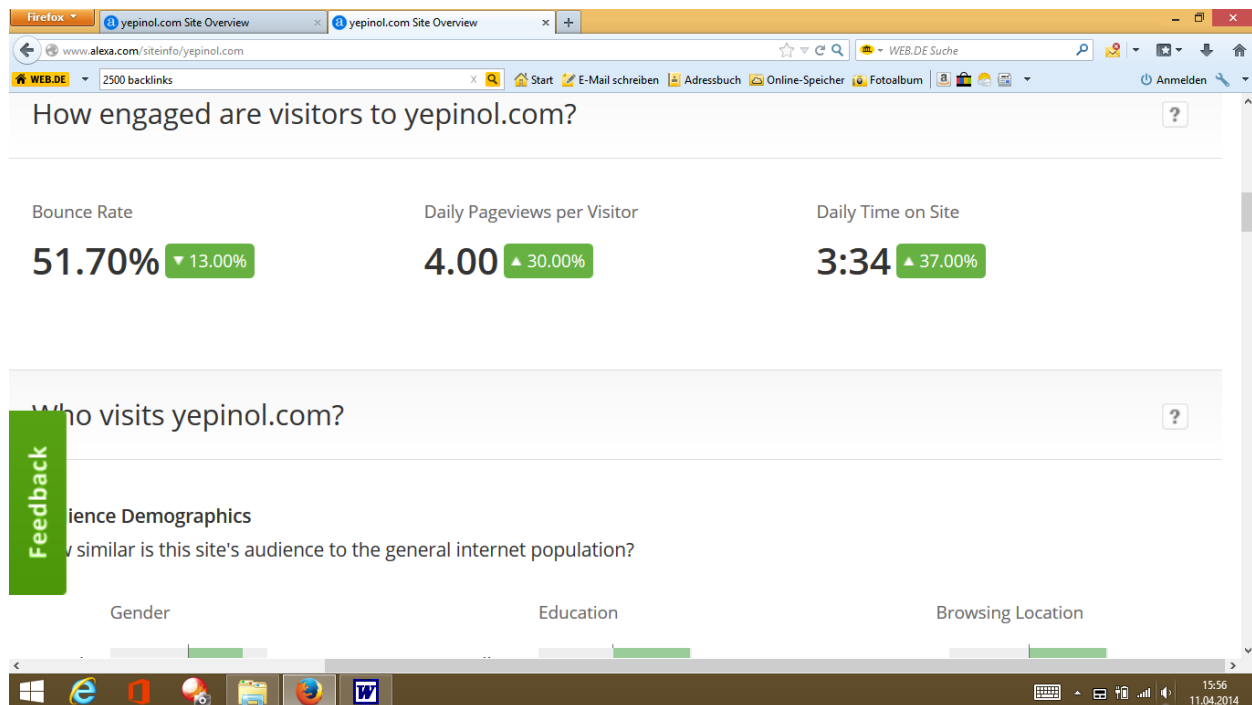

I have another blog owned by the guys of OnlineWebApplication!

Keep on reading now....let me present the next traffic source...

2b. Yepinol.com

Yepinol.com is another great site of the OnlineWebApplication.com blog owners. And it has also a 2 great alexa statistics as you can see here:

Over 3 minutes daily spends a blog visitor on Yepinol.com. This is proof of the quality and relevancy of the blog. You know when someone is not interested in the content of a site they leave the site within a few seconds.

So...the aim of this guide is to show you reliable sources of traffic. If you have reliable and bulletproof traffic source you can use every time when you need them – then you will never fail.

On Yepinol.com you can ask for a guest post and you will have the same benefits as on OnlineWebApplication.com.

Another idea of using these 2 powerful sites – OnlineWebApplication & Yepinol – is to ask for a solo ad to their subscribers. I am pretty sure that the blog owners will have a good solution for you because they have an enormous knowhow related to internet marketing, seo & social media advertising.

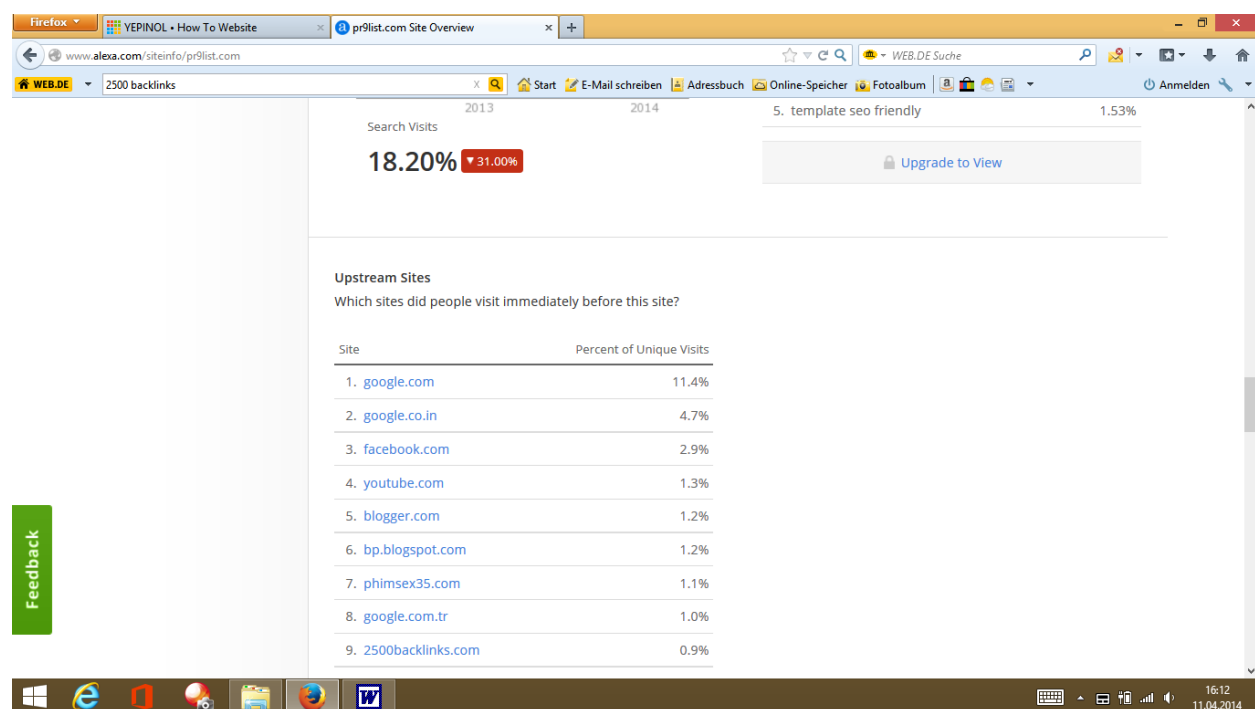

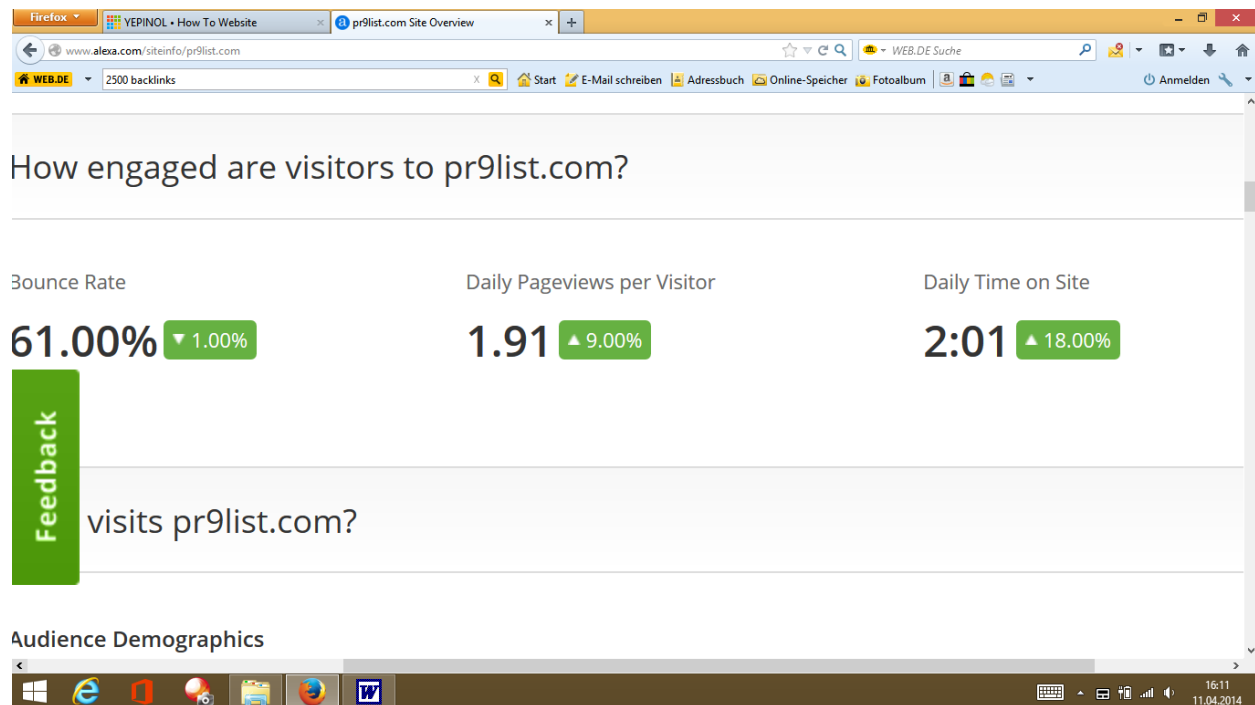

Ok.....Let's take the step to the next traffic source.

2c. Pr9List.com

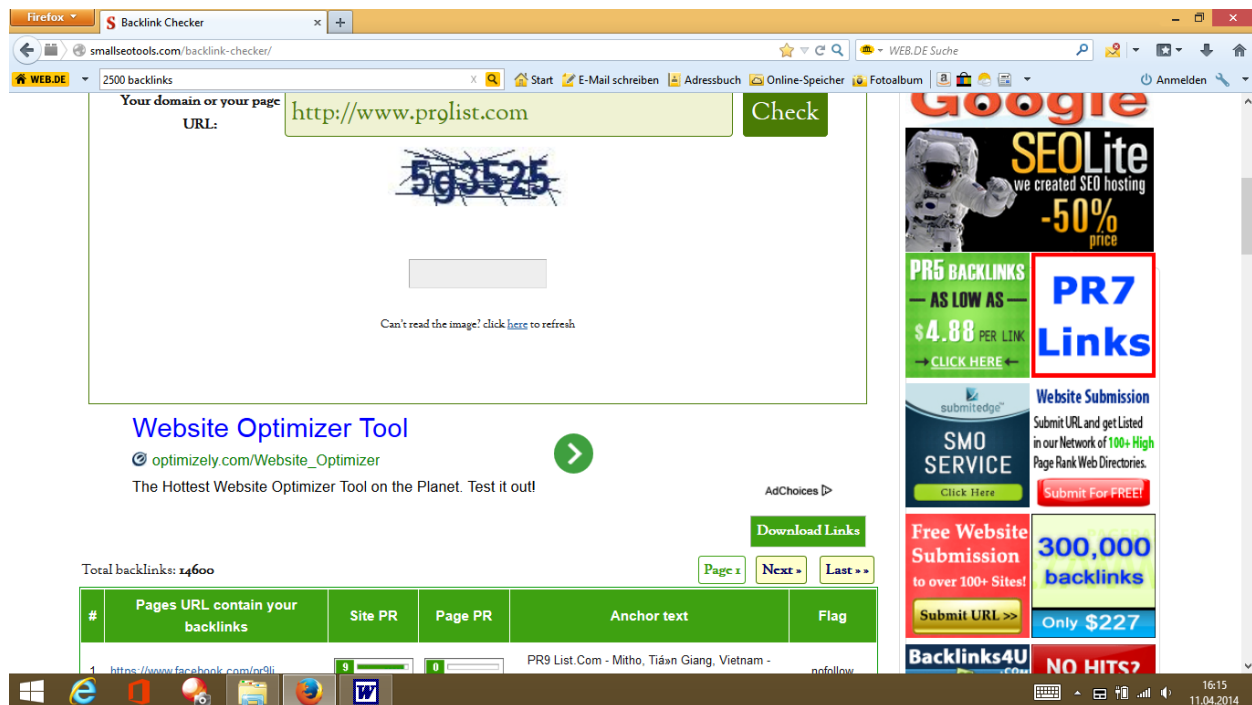

Pr9List.com is a great traffic source. It is the cheapest one in this guide but it will worth it. Dear reader – pay now big attention to this section.

Surfing Tips

These traffic exchange surfing tips will help you save time, get more credits and use traffic exchanges more efficiently and safely. You will learn how to save bandwidth while surfing, make sure your computer isn't infected by malware, and even ensure stable 24/7 auto surfing. For manual traffic exchanges, there also are a number of tips that you can apply in order to earn credits faster, disable annoying audio and flash ads, and protect your computer from viruses.

#1. Download Firefox as it is the best (safest, fastest, and most memory-efficient) browser to use when auto surfing or clicking in manual traffic exchanges. Its real power, however, is in the variety of add-ons and plugins you can install to make surfing in traffic exchanges a smooth and pleasant experience (meaning –no more annoying audio, pop-ups, and malware!).

Since we will be installing several plugins and doing a lot of tweaking, it's best to create a new Firefox profile just for surfing so it won't interfere with your everyday browsing. You will be able to use your regular and new profile simultaneously. To create a new Firefox profile, first close all Firefox processes and then click Start >Run. Type in firefox.exe -profilemanager and press Enter. A dialog box will come up, where you will be able to create your new profile –name it “surfing”, for the case of simplicity. We'll use that for 24/7 auto surfing, but you'll be able to use it for surfing manual traffic exchanges just as well.

To launch your new profile, you'll need to make a special Firefox shortcut. Copy your existing Firefox shortcut, right-click on it and choose "Properties". In the Target field, enter the following:

`"C:\Program Files (x86)\Mozilla Firefox\firefox.exe" -p surfing -no-remote`

The first part is the directory you have Firefox installed in. Make sure it's correct (the one above is just an example). The parameters after that tell Firefox that we want to use a different profile (-p) which is called "surfing", and that we want the ability to use several Firefox profiles at simultaneously (-no-remote). This way you'll be able to use your "normal" Firefox as well as the special "surfing" profile at the same time (for example: browsing the net while auto surfs work in the background).

#2. Tweak the browser settings. This is all done either in Tools >Options, or by typing in about: config in the address bar and hitting enter to change the advanced options:

- Enable the pop-up blocking (obviously).
- Disable the "Load images automatically" setting and enter each traffic exchange manually to the exceptions list. This is optional, but it will save you loads of bandwidth. Only traffic exchanges and their surfbars will show pictures; everywhere else, they won't load.
- Leave JavaScript enabled, but disable all its permissions to mess around with Firefox windows in the Advanced tab.
- Disable Java (don't mistake for JavaScript –we do NOT need Java for our surfing profile, nor do we want it (its applets can slow down your computer a lot, and it's also a potential security risk)).
- Disable browsing History and all warnings since we don't want nor need them while surfing and this will save you some resources.
- Advanced option: through about: config, set browser.sessionhistory.max_total_viewers to 0. This will save you a lot of RAM since Firefox won't cache back/forward pages in system memory (you do not need this when surfing).

- Advanced option: in about: config, set browser.sessionstore.enabled to false. This will save you some system resources since Firefox won't be saving your tab info in background to recover it in case of a crash.
- Advanced setting: enable all pipelining settings, and set network.http.pipelining.maxrequests to a number between 4 to 8. This will allow Firefox to make multiple requests to the web pages at the same time and should speed up browsing (although it will use a little more CPU, on modern systems it's barely noticeable). Some online blogs tell you to set max requests to ridiculously high numbers like 32, but that won't actually improve your speed any more.

#3. Install plugins. These can make your browser do almost anything. We're going to use them for enhanced safety and comfort while surfing. There are two main plugins that I highly recommend if you are using traffic exchanges:

- NoScript disables all scripts and plugins (such as Flash or embedded audio) in all domains except the ones in your whitelist. To use NoScript effectively, you must first disable scripts globally (default setting of the plugin) and then add your trusted sites to its list. In our case, we'll allow all traffic exchange domains. Simply open the traffic exchange that you are a member of, click the little "S" on the right of the status bar, and choose "Allow (traffic-exchange-name).com". Not only this will make your browser the most secure in the world (protecting against all kinds of malware), it will also take care of things like: annoying audio, flash animations, pop-ups or layer ads of any kind, and even framebreakers—as long as this crap doesn't come from the traffic exchange domain itself (and if it does, you probably shouldn't be a member of that particular exchange).
- ReloadEvery is a very simple plugin that can reload a tab (or all of them) every X minutes. This plugin is irreplaceable when using auto surf exchanges with "refreshable" surfbars; just set it to reload all tabs every 15 minutes, and you will be able to achieve 24/7 auto surfing. We need to refresh the surfbars from time to time, because occasionally there are timeouts and other problems that reloading the tab will solve.

#4. Launch all the traffic exchanges at once. This can be achieved in several ways.

First, you can simply open all the traffic exchanges that you surf often, click Bookmarks >Bookmark All Tabs, and save them all in a folder. Now whenever you want to surf, you can open all your favorite traffic surfbars by simply opening the according bookmark folder and clicking “Open All in Tabs”.

The second way is extremely useful for auto surfs which have no-login surfbars (the ones where you can start surfing right away, without having to log in). The URL for such surfbar usually looks similar to this:

<http://yourautosurf.com/surf.php?id=yourid>

Wouldn't it be great to launch 20 or more of such auto surfs with a single click? I'll show you how. What you have to do is copy URLs of the surfbars, and add them all to your Firefox Homepage field, separated by a | sign. For example:

<http://surf1.com/surf.php?id=1> | <http://surf2.com/surf.php?id=1> | <http://surf3.com/surf.php?id=1>

Naturally, this can be applied to launch all of your manual traffic exchanges at once, too. Since almost all manual TEs require you to login before surfing, it would be wise to bookmark their login pages instead of surfbars.

You will probably want to create a separate Firefox profile for your auto and manual exchanges. The “manual” Firefox profile would launch your manual TE logins, while the “auto surf” profile would launch the surfbars of automatic TEs directly. Refer to step #1 for information on creating a new Firefox profile.

For manual traffic exchanges, you will want to have enough of them open in Firefox tabs so you will always have a ready surfbar to click on. Do not worry too much if you can't keep up with all the timers. The key to efficient manual surfing is having the next surfbar timer ready by the time you switch to the next tab. Most people should be able to surf 10 different exchanges at the same time without problems.

Don't forget to make use of Firefox keyboard shortcuts as well: Ctrl+Tab sends you to the next tab, while Ctrl+1 to 9 lets you access the according tabs in order they're arranged in. Keep one hand on your mouse to click the images, and switch to the next tab with your other hand using Ctrl+Tab. This will allow you to maximize your credit earning rate.

#5. Stable 24/7 auto surfing. You should be all set for your manual surfing if you tweak your settings, use NoScript, and (optionally) disable images. For auto surfing when you're not at your PC, however, a lot of problems will pop-up...literally. No matter what you do, you are going to get JavaScript messages, annoying ads, download prompts, security certificate questions, and so on. In order to deal with these, you can use specialized software for closing dialog boxes. I use Buzof for this purpose; you will need to "train" this program to recognize and close each dialog box, but after a while you will truly be able to run auto surfs for indefinite amounts of time.

Just note that the best candidates for this are the auto surfs where you don't have to login or where your session doesn't expire for long periods of time; also those where you can refresh the surfbar without triggering any "framebreaker protection" dialog box (remember, NoScript provides 100% protection against framebreakers).

3d. Submit Your Site To 1,406 Different Websites

PingMyUrl.com is a very high traffic site. You can submit your site to 1,406 different websites and you have also the possibility to get a free premium listing in their web directory – in return you have to put a link from them on your site. But this will worth it cause of the amazing screenshot below

The site has an enormous traffic. And the traffic comes from a lot of great sources as you can see here

Upstream Sites
Which sites did people visit immediately before this site?

Site	Percent of Unique Visits
1. google.com	13.4%
2. google.co.in	4.2%
3. facebook.com	3.4%
4. pingmylink.com	3.1%
5. pingomatic.com	2.7%

Don't hesitate and use this free opportunity to list your site on a site with enough reputation.

Here is the link: <http://www.pingmyurl.com/>

3e. Submit Your Site To 400 Search Engines

On <http://www.usertown.de/submit/> you can submit your website to 400 search engines. It is also FREE and you can repeat the process every 4-6 weeks for getting noticed for your new content more frequently from the search engines.

3f. Build 9,500 Backlinks to Your Sites with Free Backlink Generators

Chapter 4: Traffic with Free Product Submissions

4a. Resell-Rights-Weekly.com

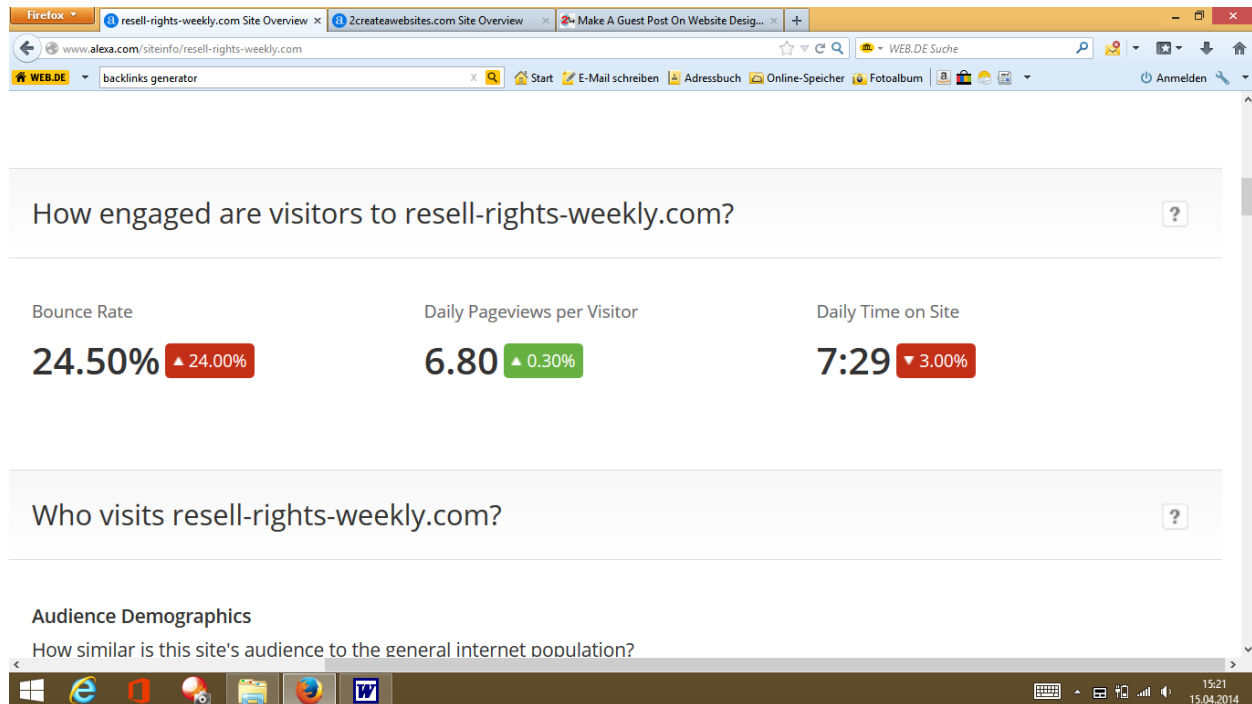

Resell-Rights-Weekly.com is a great site to get targeted traffic. The site owner is a good friend of mine and he helped me really much on my past launch TubeSeoRanker.

The best aspect of the site is that the traffic is very qualitative (this does not mean that the other mentioned sites in this guide have less quality traffic ;-))

Look on the screenshot below:

And another great aspect is the daily time on RRW that every member spends – look here:

And the 3rd aspect is that the site gets huge organic traffic as shown below:

Site	Percent of Unique Visits
1. google.com	10.0%
2. facebook.com	3.0%
3. yahoo.com	3.0%
4. masterresellrights.com	2.8%
5. warriorforum.com	2.4%
6. google.co.uk	1.6%
7. youtube.com	1.6%
8. paypal.com	1.3%
9. jvzoo.com	1.0%
10. live.com	0.9%

Less

3 good reasons to use this site as a quality traffic source right? 😊

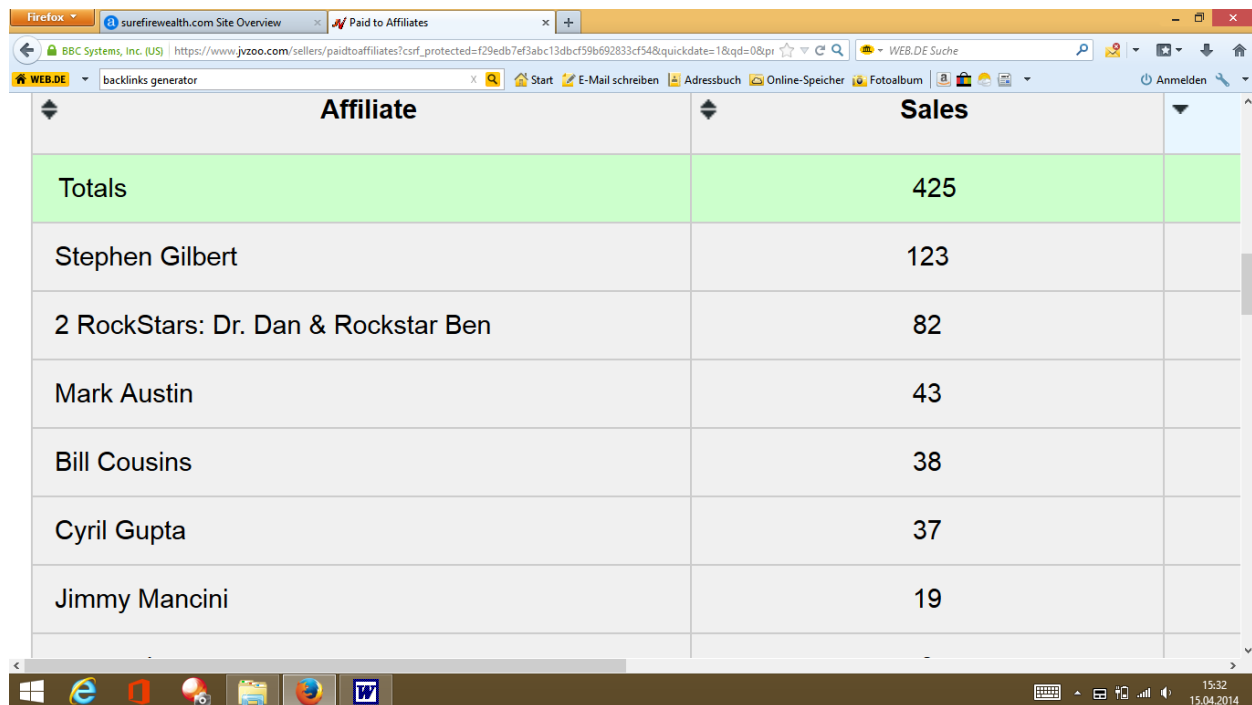

But here comes the 4th aspect to use this site. The owner Mark Austin is a really nice guy. He is so nice that he will also give you the opportunity to submit your IM Product for free to his site. BOOM!!! What does this mean for you dear reader?

Let me explain. RRW is getting huge traffic and your product could be downloaded several hundred or thousand times. RRW members are very active and the Mark is also interested in promoting in good IM Products. So maybe you can send him also a JV Partner query. Why? Cause he delivers. Look below to the traffic percentage he sent me on my product TubeSeoRanker:

Site	Percent of Unique Visits
1. google.com	16.7%
2. bestblackhatforum.com	10.0%
3. jyzoo.com	9.3%
4. resell-rights-weekly.com	6.1%
5. 2500backlinks.com	3.9%

As you can see I am getting over 6% of the traffic from RWW. These have resulted in following sales rate:

Affiliate	Sales
Totals	425
Stephen Gilbert	123
2 RockStars: Dr. Dan & Rockstar Ben	82
Mark Austin	43
Bill Cousins	38
Cyril Gupta	37
Jimmy Mancini	19

As you can see Mar is on position 3 😊 nothing more to say about this website owner and his site RRW.

The best part is you can submit any IM related product. It must be qualitative only otherwise you will never hear a word from Mark again.

Ok. Let me show you the next traffic source...

4b. Surefirewealth.com

Surefirwealth.com is also a great site like RRW.

Great Alexa Statistics as shown below:

How engaged are visitors to surefirewealth.com?

Bounce Rate	Daily Pageviews per Visitor	Daily Time on Site
34.70% ▲ 11.00%	6.90 ▼ 5.71%	7:11 ▲ 5.00%

Who visits surefirewealth.com?

Audience Demographics
How similar is this site's audience to the general internet population?

Upstream Sites
Which sites did people visit immediately before this site?

Site	Percent of Unique Visits
1. google.com	19.8%
2. yahoo.com	2.8%
3. exclusivelicensingrights.com	2.6%
4. jvzoo.com	2.0%
5. live.com	1.9%

More

SFW allows you to submit your product for FREE as free member of the site. When your product follows their quality standards – every member, free & paid members will be able to download your products. Don't underestimate this chance cause a lot of their products, such as E-Books and Softwares have been downloaded over 15,000 times. You can use this site to promote free offers for list building. Or you can give away your software with limited features and redirect the members to a paid version. This site has like RRW a huge viral effect. Give a giveaway right to your submitted product and your website traffic will come on completely autopilot because a lot of webmasters will promote your offer for free. Also this is a great opportunity to build new JV Partnerships with like minded people.

The only requirement for both sites - RRW & SFW – is the following: You must be the product owner of the product you want to submit otherwise no chance for getting accepted. Try them out – it will cost you nothing. 😊

Ok. Lets don't stop here – let's continue with our Inhouse Projects that will give you a great value.

Note: My account was banned because I was new to flippa and set up a less reserve price (my mistake) I have tried to explain the mistake to the buyer but he was very offending and flippa banned my account ☹️ But I guess I am not the only person that had problems with flippa 😊

You can still benefit from this site because it has a good amount of backlinks pointing to it according to smalleseotools.com statistics:

Chapter 6: Bonus: More Free & Paid Traffic Sources

6a. SmallSeoTools.com

SmallSeoTools.com is a great seo site where you can find free seo tools for improving your websites seo performance and check their statistics. Another great aspect to try out this site is the amazing alexa rank as you can see below:

The paid advertising option is little bit expensive but it will worth it because SmallSeoTools delivers traffic.

Let me show it to you in a live proof on the site.

Look at the banner advertisements on the right side. The green banner “PR5 Backlinks as low as $4.88” belongs to edurocket.net

Look at the alexa statistics of this site below:

As you can see EduRocket gets over 9% of the traffic from SmallSeoTools.com. Paid Banner Advertising prices are little bit over $200 – but it will worth it.

Another option of advertising is the free option.

SmallSeoTools.com has also a blog. On that blog you will have the opportunity to publish your own articles. Contact the website owner and ask for a guest post. I am sure he will be happy to get unique content.

Ok. Still happy? Then I am happy too 😊

So – this was the last chapter. I hope you will apply the tips in this guide for your maximum benefit and enjoy the long lasting traffic you will get.

To Your Endless Success,

Alper Aribal
